Because of You, Henry Has a Home

Henry is only three months away from high school graduation. Due to unfortunate family circumstances, he suddenly found himself homeless. After couch-surfing for a couple of weeks, he found a friend whose parents would let him rent their basement for $300 a month. He was able to stretch his savings to cover the first month's rent but wasn't sure how he would make it to the end of the school year.

Henry's mentor learned of Henry's struggle and referred him to our services team. With your support, Bellevue LifeSpring will be able to provide rent assistance for Henry's last two months of school, allowing him to focus on classes and graduate with his peers. Henry says he's already applied to college and is working on finding a job to support himself.

Henry's mentor told us, "I really appreciate the help you gave to Henry to pay his rent. Many thanks for the quick action. This relieves a lot of stress for him, as he works to pass all his classes and graduate in June. You were so helpful and encouraging during your meeting with him."

Education is the pathway out of poverty. Our community makes it possible for us to provide students like Henry with the stability they need to achieve success. Thank you!

Your Generosity in Action

At our Step Up to the Plate Benefit Luncheon, we asked for your support to meet the real needs of the 3,700 children living in poverty in Bellevue.
